

PORT ORCHARD SCARECROW CONTEST

Entries to be displayed no later than October 22nd to at least NOVEMBER 7th, 2021

OPEN TO EVERYONE --OFFICIAL SCARECROW CONTEST RULES

Pre-Registration Begins October 1, 2021

Change!! We encourage downtown businesses who create a scarecrow to display it in their business. Organizations, individuals or businesses with no downtown storefront can arrange with a downtown business to display at their business. OR scarecrows can be displayed at the Port Orchard Market! Let us know below!

- 1. Contest is open to all ages, individuals, families, clubs, groups & businesses.
2. All entrants agree to allow use of their name(s) and photos for promotional purposes.
3. Any materials may be used but perishable foods are discouraged.
4. Entries must be appropriate for a community, family event - no politics, no gore, etc.
5. Categories are: Traditional (old clothes, like you'd find in a corn field), Open (humorous, scary, creative), Youth (Open, U14 - adult assistance allowed, but should be youth's creation), Business/Non-Profit (Open, 11x17 advertising allowed as part of display)
6. Entries must be sturdy and freestanding. Each display may be up to 3' wide by 8' high.
7. You may enter only one single scarecrow, but you may enter it in as many categories as you choose.
8. Powered (i.e. electric) kinetic displays are not allowed.
9. Please indicate below the location you want your scarecrow displayed—you will receive instructions upon registering regarding an entry number that you must visibly affix to your scarecrow.
10. Contest entries must be registered and on display by October 22nd to be part of judging.
11. Winners for each category will be determined by a committee appointed by the Port Orchard Bay Street Association.

People's choice voting will begin October 23rd, so get your display up by then for the most opportunities for votes!
